How Scripture Writing Works

Writing God's Word by hand slows you down. You notice small words, you remember more, and a new year gets a steady first habit. This plan gives you one short King James passage for every day of January 2027: a fresh start, seeking God, walking with God, and resting on His promises as you look ahead. Most days take 5–15 minutes.

1. Pray. Ask God to speak to you through His Word before you start.
2. Read. Read the day's passage slowly, in your Bible or on the page. Read it twice.
3. Write. Copy it by hand on the lines, word for word. Neat or messy, both count.
4. Notice. Underline a word or phrase that stands out. Circle anything repeated.
5. Reflect. Answer the short prompt in a sentence or two, or turn it into a prayer.
6. Check it off. Mark the box on the day and on the month calendar. Missed a day? Just write today's.

Tips. Print at 100% / Actual size. Print the whole plan, or print just the calendar (page 3) as a compact tracker and write in your own journal. Pens, pencils and highlighters all work. Families can share one plan: kids can copy a single verse.

"And these words, which I command thee this day, shall be in thine heart:"

DEUTERONOMY 6:6 (KJV)

LOOKING BACK · A MONTH IN THE WORD

The verse I want to memorize:

What God showed me about a fresh start:

A promise of God I will hold onto this year:

How I will keep writing Scripture in February:

Keep Walking with God

"But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day and night. And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper."

PSALM 1:2-3 (KJV)

Thirty-one days of writing Scripture by hand is a strong first step into a new year. Keep these pages with your Bible and read them back when the year gets busy. The Word you wrote is still yours.
