How Scripture Writing Works

Writing God's Word by hand slows you down. You notice small words, you remember more, and a busy season gets a quiet anchor. This plan gives you one short King James passage for every day of November and December: thankfulness through Thanksgiving, then Advent hope, peace, joy and love through Christmas and into the new year. Most days take 5–15 minutes.

1. Pray. Ask God to speak to you through His Word before you start.
2. Read. Read the day's passage slowly, in your Bible or on the page. Read it twice.
3. Write. Copy it by hand on the lines, word for word. Neat or messy, both count.
4. Notice. Underline a word or phrase that stands out. Circle anything repeated.
5. Reflect. Answer the short prompt in a sentence or two, or turn it into a prayer.
6. Check it off. Mark the box on the day and on the month calendar. Missed a day? Just write today's.

Tips. Print at 100% / Actual size. Print only the month you need, or print just the two calendar pages (3 and 19) as a compact tracker and write in your own journal. Pens, pencils and highlighters all work. Families can share one plan: kids can copy a single verse.

"Let not mercy and truth forsake thee: bind them about thy neck; write them upon the table of thine heart:"

What Advent and Christmas stirred in me:

One habit I will keep in the new year:

Let the Word Dwell Richly

"Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord."

COLOSSIANS 3:16 (KJV)
