How to Play Bible Bingo

- 1 Print Print the cards at 100% / "Actual size", on card stock if you can. Cut each page in half: two cards per page.
- 2 Cut Cut out the calling cards for the game you are playing and put them in a bowl, a hat or a stocking.
- 3 Call Draw a calling card. Read the word, or read its clue from the caller sheet, or read the KJV verse with the word left out.
- 4 Mark Players mark that word if it is on their card (crayon, stickers, buttons or candy). The FREE square is already marked.
- 5 Win The first player with five in a row (across, down or corner to corner) calls "Bingo!". Check the words, then play again.

THREE WAYS TO CALL

Little ones: read the word and hold up the calling card.

Clue bingo: read the clue. Players work out the word.

Verse bingo: read the King James verse with a blank where the word goes. Older kids, teens and adults fill the gap.

MORE WAYS TO WIN

Four corners: mark all four corner squares.

Big X: both diagonals.

Picture frame: every square around the edge.

Blackout: every square on the card (a long game for a party).

Tip for leaders: keep the caller sheets (pages 9–10 and 18–19) and calling cards for yourself, and hand out only the cards. Every clue and verse is from the King James Bible, with the reference, so you can read the whole story afterwards.

"One generation shall praise thy works to another, and shall declare thy mighty acts."
