BEFORE YOU BEGIN

How to Use This Plan

This plan walks through all 66 books in a general historical order, so the story unfolds as it happened: Job beside the patriarchs, the Psalms woven into David's life, the prophets read with the kings they spoke to, the four Gospels loosely harmonized, and Paul's letters set alongside Acts.

- 1 Pick a start date. January 1 is popular, but any day works. If you start mid-year, write your own dates in the Date column and simply follow the day numbers.
- 2 Read the day's chapters. Most days take about 12 minutes. Read slowly; aloud if you can.
- 3 Check it off. Tick the box on the monthly page, then color in the matching dot on the year tracker.
- 4 Write one line. Note a verse, a question, or a prayer. A SOAP page works well for this.
- 5 Missed a day? No guilt. Pick up today's reading, and catch up on a quiet weekend if you like.

GOOD TO KNOW

A note on order: the dates of some books and psalms are debated, so the chronological placement of several readings (for example Job, Joel, Obadiah, many psalms, and some letters) is approximate. The goal is to follow the big story, not to settle every date.

Leap year? Use February 29 as a catch-up or rest day; the plan has 365 readings.

"O how love I thy law! it is my meditation all the day."

PSALM 119:97 (KJV)

"But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God." MATTHEW 4:4 (KJV)

The Finish Line

“So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it.”

ISAIAH 55:11 (KJV)
