Forty Days to Easter

Lent is the 40 days before Easter, counted from Ash Wednesday to Holy Saturday without the Sundays. It recalls the 40 days Jesus fasted in the wilderness (Matthew 4:2). Many churches keep it with prayer, fasting and giving; others do not keep a church season at all. Either way, these readings walk through repentance, the life of Jesus and His road to the cross, so Easter morning means more.

HOW TO USE THIS PLAN

Read the passage. Each day has one short Bible passage, about 5 to 10 minutes of reading in any King James Bible.

Hold on to one verse. The key verse for the day is printed in full, so you can carry it with you or copy it out.

Tick the box. Missed a day? Simply pick up today's reading. The plan is a help, not a test.

Sundays are for rest. The 40 days of Lent do not count the Sundays. Each Sunday has a psalm to read with your family or church.

Answer one question. Each week ends with one question to think over or talk about at the table.
