IDEAS FOR HOMES, CLASSES AND CHURCHES

- Frame the wall print for a kitchen, hallway or child's room; tape the daily-bread card near the table.
- Sunday school and homeschool: learn one or two lines a day, then pray the whole prayer together.
- Pray it at bedtime or before family devotions, and slip a prayer card into your Bible.

All Scripture is from the King James Version, word for word. The prayer is printed as the KJV gives it in Matthew 6:9-13, including the closing words "For thine is the kingdom...". Page 15 shows the shorter version in Luke 11 and explains why some Bibles put those closing words in a footnote.

"But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly."

MATTHEW 6:6 (KJV)

The Lord's Prayer

Matthew 6:9–13

Our Father which art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come.
Thy will be done in earth,
as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our debts,
as we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil:

For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Matthew 6:9-13

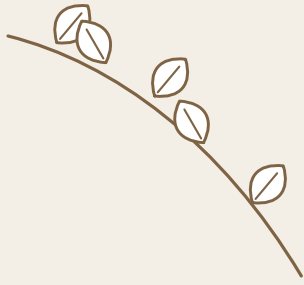

⁹ After this manner therefore pray ye:
Our Father which art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy name.

¹⁰ Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.

¹¹ Give us this day our daily bread.

¹² And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

¹³ And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

Thy will be done
in earth,
as it is in heaven.

MATTHEW 6:10

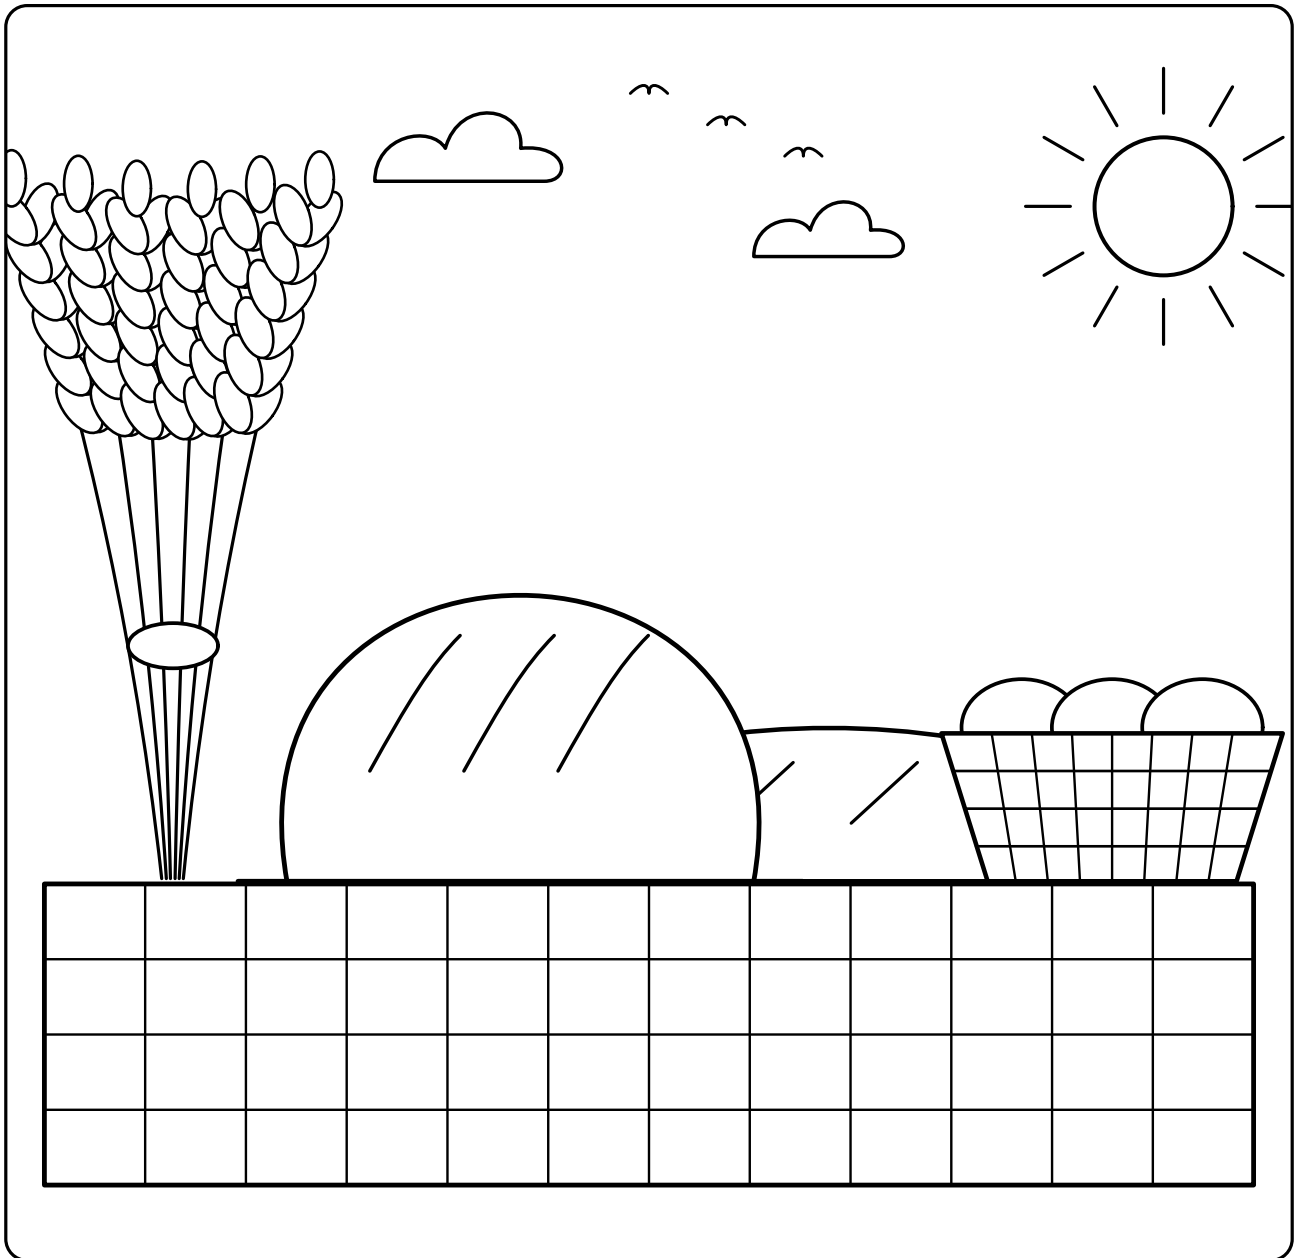

Our Father which art in heaven

Matthew 6 and Luke 11, Side by Side

MATTHEW 6:9-13

In the Sermon on the Mount

- ⁹ After this manner therefore pray ye: Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name.
- ¹⁰ Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.
- ¹¹ Give us this day our daily bread.
- ¹² And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
- ¹³ And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

WHAT IS DIFFERENT IN THE KJV WORDING

- Matthew: "in earth, as it is in heaven" (6:10) • Luke: "as in heaven, so in earth" (11:2)
- Matthew: "this day" (6:11) • Luke: "day by day" (11:3)
- Matthew: "forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors" (6:12) • Luke: "forgive us our sins; for we also forgive every one that is indebted to us" (11:4)
- Luke's version has no closing words of praise after "deliver us from evil".

LUKE 11:2-4

After a disciple asked, "Lord, teach us to pray"

- ² And he said unto them, When ye pray, say, Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, as in heaven, so in earth.
- ³ Give us day by day our daily bread.
- ⁴ And forgive us our sins; for we also forgive every one that is indebted to us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil.

ABOUT THE CLOSING WORDS

"For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen." is part of Matthew 6:13 in the King James Version, so this printable keeps it. The KJV translators (1611) worked from Greek texts that include these words. Many of the oldest Greek manuscripts known today end the prayer at "deliver us from evil", so most modern translations put the closing words in a footnote or leave them out. In the KJV, Luke's version also ends at "deliver us from evil". The words echo David's prayer in 1 Chronicles 29:11. Many churches pray them; some stop before them.

"DEBTS" OR "TRESPASSES"?

Many churches pray "forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us". That wording goes back to English prayer books such as the Book of Common Prayer (first published in 1549), not to the KJV. The KJV of Matthew 6:12 says "debts" and "debtors", Luke 11:4 says "sins", and Jesus speaks of "trespasses" in the very next verse:

"For if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you:"

MATTHEW 6:14 (KJV)

PRAY IT LINE BY LINE

Seven Lines, Seven Prayers

MATTHEW 6:9

"Our Father which art in heaven"

Jesus teaches us to call God "Our Father". Write one thing you want to tell Him today.

MATTHEW 6:9

"Hallowed be thy name"

"Hallowed" means honoured as holy. Write one way to honour God's name this week.

MATTHEW 6:10

"Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven"

Where do I need to pray "Thy will be done" over my own plans?

MATTHEW 6:11

"Give us this day our daily bread"

What do I need just for today? Ask for it, and thank Him for one thing He has already given.

MATTHEW 6:12

"forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors"

Ask God's forgiveness. Is there someone I need to forgive? Forgiving is not pretending a wrong never happened; pray about it honestly.

MATTHEW 6:13

"lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil"

What do I want God to keep me from, or carry me through, this week?

MATTHEW 6:13

"For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory"

End with praise: write one reason God deserves the glory.

Then pray the whole prayer slowly, as Jesus taught it.

Keep Praying

“And I say unto you, Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you.”

LUKE 11:9 (KJV)

Jesus gave this prayer as a pattern: “After this manner therefore pray ye”. Pray it slowly tomorrow morning, then write below what you want to bring to your Father this week.
