A NOTE ON THE NAMES

How the names are written. Hebrew names are spelled in English in several ways (Jehovah-jireh, Jehovah Jireh, Yahweh Yireh). Where the King James Bible prints the name itself (Genesis 22:14, Exodus 17:15, Judges 6:24), we keep the KJV spelling. In the other verses the KJV translates the Hebrew name into English, so we give the Hebrew name with the KJV wording.

LORD in capitals. Where the KJV prints LORD (or GOD) in capitals, the Hebrew has God's own name, YHWH. The KJV writes that name as JEHOVAH in a few verses, such as Exodus 6:3.

Meanings. Each meaning is kept short and close to the KJV's own words in that verse. Read the whole passage for the full story.

"O magnify the LORD with me, and let us exalt his name together."

PSALM 34:3 (KJV)
