How Scripture Writing Works

Writing God's Word by hand slows you down. You notice small words, you remember more, and a new year gets a steady first habit. This plan gives you one short King James passage for every day of January 2027: a fresh start, seeking God, walking with God, and resting on His promises as you look ahead. Most days take 5–15 minutes.

- 1 Pray. Ask God to speak to you through His Word before you start.
- 2 Read. Read the day's passage slowly, in your Bible or on the page. Read it twice.
- 3 Write. Copy it by hand on the lines, word for word. Neat or messy, both count.
- 4 Notice. Underline a word or phrase that stands out. Circle anything repeated.
- 5 Reflect. Answer the short prompt in a sentence or two, or turn it into a prayer.
- 6 Check it off. Mark the box on the day and on the month calendar. Missed a day? Just write today's.

Tips. Print at 100% / Actual size. Print the whole plan, or print just the calendar (page 3) as a compact tracker and write in your own journal. Pens, pencils and highlighters all work. Families can share one plan: kids can copy a single verse.

"And these words, which I command thee this day, shall be in thine heart:"

DEUTERONOMY 6:6 (KJV)

LOOKING BACK • A MONTH IN THE WORD

The verse I want to memorize:

What God showed me about a fresh start:

A promise of God I will hold onto this year:

How I will keep writing Scripture in February:

Keep Walking with God

“But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day and night. And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.”

PSALM 1:2-3 (KJV)

Thirty-one days of writing Scripture by hand is a strong first step into a new year. Keep these pages with your Bible and read them back when the year gets busy. The Word you wrote is still yours.
