How Scripture Writing Works

Writing God's Word by hand slows you down. You notice small words, you remember more, and a busy season gets a quiet anchor. This plan gives you one short King James passage for every day of November and December: thankfulness through Thanksgiving, then Advent hope, peace, joy and love through Christmas and into the new year. Most days take 5–15 minutes.

- 1 Pray. Ask God to speak to you through His Word before you start.
- 2 Read. Read the day's passage slowly, in your Bible or on the page. Read it twice.
- 3 Write. Copy it by hand on the lines, word for word. Neat or messy, both count.
- 4 Notice. Underline a word or phrase that stands out. Circle anything repeated.
- 5 Reflect. Answer the short prompt in a sentence or two, or turn it into a prayer.
- 6 Check it off. Mark the box on the day and on the month calendar. Missed a day? Just write today's.

Tips. Print at 100% / Actual size. Print only the month you need, or print just the two calendar pages (3 and 19) as a compact tracker and write in your own journal. Pens, pencils and highlighters all work. Families can share one plan: kids can copy a single verse.

"Let not mercy and truth forsake thee: bind them about thy neck; write them upon the table of thine heart:"

Psalm 107:8-9 KJV · read it, then write it out below

Reflect: What would “yet I will rejoice” look like in your hard place?

Philippians 4:11-13 KJV · read it, then write it out below

Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content. I know both how to be abased, and I know how to abound: every where and in all things I am instructed both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need. I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me.

Reflect: Name one thing that helps you be content today.
